An evening with New York Times bestselling author Georgia Hunter “We Were the Lucky Ones”

When Georgia Hunter was 15 years old, she discovered that she came from a family of Holocaust survivors. Years later, she embarked on a journey of intensive research, determined to unearth and record her family's remarkable story. We Were the Lucky Ones, a gripping saga that follows the Kurc family as brothers, sisters, parents, and children scatter across continents at the start of the Second World War, determined to survive, and to reunite.

We Were the Lucky Ones is Georgia Hunter's first book and spent over four months on the New York Times Bestseller List. It has been translated into 13 languages, and was selected as an Audible Best Book, a Harper's Bazaar Top Pick, a New York Post Must-Read, and a People Magazine Best New Book; it has been also optioned for a limited series in television.

Introduced by Steven Lapidus, Ph.D., Lecturer, Concordia University, Department of Religion and Cultures Research Associate, Institute for Canadian Jewish Studies.
